Yesterday's elections resulted in a whirlwind of Democratic victories.

In this State Grover Cleveland is elected Governor by a majority which, according to the returns received up to the hour of going to press, will probably not fall short of 150,000. His majority in this city alone is about 78,000. In Brooklyn he has a majority of 38,000. The remainder of the Democratic State ticket is elected by majorities about equal to Cieveland's. Franklin Edson is elected Mayor of this city by about 25,000 majority, and the remainder of the Democratic local ticket is elected by majorities ranging from 12,000 to 20,000. The whole Democratic local ticket in Brook

Gen. Tracy, the Republican candidate for Supreme Court Judge in the Second Judicial district, is defeated by Judge Brown, the Demooratic candidate. The Democrats have gained at least two Congressmen in this State, and the indications are that they will have an increased majority in the

gress. John J. Adams (D.) and W. L. Strong (H.) are probably elected. Secor Robeson is defeated for Congress in the First New Jersey district, by a majority estimated at 1.500. His own county gave several hundred majority against him. Miles Boss, the River and Harbor jobber, is iefeated for Congress in the Third New Jersey district, and the indications are that his fellows also defeated. The Democratic gains of Assemblymen in New Jersey insure a Democratic majority on joint ballot in the Legislature. Gen. Butler is elected Governor of Massachusetts by a majority of about 20,000. The Democrate gain three or four Congressmen in

The returns from Pennsylvania come in slowly, but late estimates give Pattison, the Democratic candidate for Governor, a plurality of 30,000 over Beaver. Waller, the little Democratic Giant of Con necticut, is elected Governor by a majority es-timated at from 2,000 to 3,000. The Democrats gain two Congressmen in Connecticut, electing three out of the four to which the State is en-

THE STATE.

TROY, Nov. 7 .- Cleveland sweeps Rensselasr county, and his majority will probably reach 3,500. Cleary, Democrat, is elected to the Assembly in the First district. Van Voorst. Democrat, is probably elected in the Second. while Sweet, Democrat, had no opposition in the Third. Burleigh, Republican, for Congress had no opposition.
Nonwich, Nov. 7.—Cleveland carries Chenango county by about 800. Ray. Republican elected to Congress. Assembly very close. AUBURN, Nov. 7. Sereno E. Payne, Republi-regular Republican, by about 1,500 majority. The county gives Folger about 800 majority.

Jamaica, Nov. 7.—Dwight Townsend, Biaine's candidate for Congress in the First District, has been buried out of sight. Perry Belmont's majority in the district, it is thought here, will be between 5,000 and 6,000.

Barylon, Nov. 7.—Belmont's majority in Suffolk County is 5,000—nearly equal to the whole number of votes cast for him in 1880.

LOCKPORT, Nov. 7.—Lockbort city complete gives 871 majority for Cleveland. Ningara County will give him fully 2,000 majority. Both Democratic Assemblymen elected. Stevens, Democratic Congressman, is elected in the Thirty-first district. Slocum's majority 800 in the county.

August, No. 7.—Brench E. Jarre, Berudil, St. Strong, E. B. Strong, E. B.

The Republicans elect their candidate for the Assembly.

In Borks county, Pattison's majority is estimated at 7,800. In Reading, Pattison's majority is 1,041, a Democratic gain of 400. Nineteen election districts in the county give a Democratic gain of 1,200. The Prohibition vote in Reading is about 600, and Stewart's 200. The indications are that Northampton county will give Pattison 4,000 plurality.

Lycoming county gives Pattison 1,700 plurality. For Congress, Earley (Dem.) has a small majority.

The indications are that worthington county will give Pattison 4,000 plurality. Lycoming county gives Pattison 1,700 plurality. For Congress, Duncan (Dem.) 3,600 plurality. York County-Pattison's plurality is 4,000. For Congress, Duncan (Dem.) 3,600 plurality. The Democrats cleot all their candidates for the Assembly.

Everhart (Rep.) is elected to Congress in the Sixth district by a large majority.

Mifflin county gives Pattison a plurality of 250. Clark 260, and Elliott 250. For Congress, Curtin (Dem.), 300.

Bedford county-Pattison, 250 plurality. For Congress, Coffroth (Dem.), 400 majority. The Democrats elect both candidates for Assembly, Chester county-Returns meastre, but enough to indicate a plurality of about 1,000 for Beaver.

Midnight.—The Bosses are beaten. At midnight Chostnut street is blooked with people for squares. Rarely have such scenes been witnessed, even in Prosidential years. The result of the Independent revolt against Beaver, Cameron's candidate for Governor, has made such a wide branch in the Republican party, that Pattison, Democrat, is elected. The flugures can only be given approximately, but the only question is as to the size of Pattison's plurality of about 30,000 ever Beaver. Not a single ward in Philadelphia has returned its vote, but scattering returns indicate that Beaver has carried the city by perhaps 5,000. Stowart's vote in the State will probably reach 75,000. The Groenback-Labor ticket is not panning out well. The State will probably reach 75,000. The Groenback-Labor ticket is not panning out well. The State will probably reach 75,000. The doubtful districts are all claimed by the Democrats as follows: Wetherill over Blumm in the Thirteenth, McCormick over Barr in the Fourteenth, Early over Brown in the Sixteenth, Coffedth over Campbell in the Seventeenth, Kimmell over Atkinson in the Eighteenth, Hopkins over Erreit in the Twenty-second, Camaby over Lawrence in the Twenty-fourth, and Patton over White in the Twenty-fifth. The returns are too scattering from these districts to warrant trustworthy estimates. The Legislature will probably be Republican by a reduced majority with a large increase of anti-Cameron men.

Gen. Butler Elected Governor-A Gala of Boston, Nov. 7 .- Gen. Butler is elected Governor by about 20,000. His plurality in Boston is 13.621. The Democrats reflect Leopold Morse to Congress in the Fifth district, and probably Patrick Collins in the Fourth, Henry P. Lovering in the Sixth, and Charles P. Thompson in the Seventh. Theodore Lyman, Civil Service Independent candidate in the Ninth district, has defeated John W. Candler, Republican. Gov. Long is probably elected to ongress in the Second district. Butler carried Lowell by about 1,800 plurality, and in his home ward he leads by 175. although it is strongly Republican. The Journal concedes a plurality for Butler in the State of 20,000 but claims that the restor the Republican State teket's elected, which the returns indicate, the Legislature will be Republican, but by a reduced majority. The returns, as they come in show great gains for Butler and a failing off in the Republican vote.

Those Congressmen whose elections are still doubtful, according to Democratic returns, are Lovering in the Sixth district, Lilly in the Elghth, and Thompson in the Seventh.

Rice (Rep.) is elected to Congress from the Tenth district by 2,300 majority.

William Whiting, Republican, is elected in the Eleventh district and George D. Robinson (Rep.) in the Twofith.

Returns from thirty towns in the Eighth district show that Russell, Republican, for Congress, lends Bishop on the gubernatorial vote by 2,000 and is elected. Returns from all the voting places in the Sixth district, with the exception of Winthrop and the Charlestown wards, give Lovering 9,449, and Converse 18,672. As the Charlestown wards and Winthrop are said to be sure for Lovering, there is a strong reclability that he has been elected. The Democrate have unade large gains in the Lexislature. The indications are that the Hones will stand 150 Republicans to 90 Democrates, a gain of 15 Democrates and this year the Senate and Themes and the members.

The Memocrate and this year there will be 12 Democrate members.

ganization, earnest and unceasing personal work, and an almost unlimited use of money on the part of Republicans, Gen. B. P. Butler has been elected Governor of Massachusetts, and with him four, and probably six, Demoratic Congressmen. Bowman, Converse of Maldon, and Chandler worked the machine to its utmost capacity, and were unstituted in their use of money, but all to no pupose. Not the least of the Democratic triumph is the defeat of Senator Hoar for reslection. Moreover, a State Senator of the Democratic faith has been reslected from Worcester, the home of Senator Hoar. Gov. Long, who has been stumping it allower the State for Blahop, will go to Congress by a small majority. Boston gave the General a plurality of 13.587, which in itself would have overcome any majority against the United Democracy which could have been polled outside its borders. The contest in the Fifth district between Leopold Morse (Pem.) and Selwyn Z. Bowman (Rep.) was regarded as close, inasmuch as previously the majority for Bowman had been upward of 3.500. Bowman's Robesonian speech and machine tactics wore too much for his constituents, who repudiated him and elected his rival, Mr. Morse, by 3.000 plurality. Mayor Lovering of Lynn is elected over Converse of Maldon in the Sixth district by 800 plurality. In the Ninth district Co. Lyman of Brookline was nominated by the Independent Republicans on a civil service reform platform. The Democrats made no nomination, but endorsed Col. Lyman, and he was elected. Two other districts are in doubt—the Fifth, between Lilley of Lowell and Hussell, and the Seventh, between Charles P. Thompson of Gloucester and Eben F. Stone of Newburyport, From present indications (12 P. M.) both districts are close, with the chances in favor of the Democrats. The latest returns are from 238 towns out of 342, which give Butler for Governor 15,085 plurality.

HARTPORD, Nov. 7 .- Thomas M. Waller, Democrat, is elected Governor by from 4,000 to 5,000 plurality. The Democrats also gain two Congressmen, electing Eaton in the First, Mit-chell in the Second, and Seymour in the Fourth chell in the Second, and Seymour in the Fourth district. Wait, Republican, is undoubtedly relected in the Third district. One hundred towns give Bulkeley 25,383, and Wailer 25,306. In 1830 the same towns gave Bigelow 31,184, and English 27,816. Republican loss, 5,801; Democratic loss, 2,510. Net Republican loss, 3,291. This does not include the vote of the chief cities of the State, except Meriden. The Republican plurality in 1880 was 2,777. Waller's majority will probably be 2,500.

One hundred and twenty towns give Bulkeley 31,458, and Waller 30,702. The same towns in 1880 gave Bigelow 38,959, and English 33,828. Net Republican loss, 4,750. The vote of Hartford is: Bulkeley (Rep.), 3,831; Waller (Dem.), 4,854. In 1880 the vote on Governor was: Bigelow 4,527; English, 4,707; net Republican loss, 673. On Congressman the vote of the city is: Buck (Rep.), 3,827; Eaton (Dem.), 4,876. The Representatives elected are E. A. Cleveland and W. W. Perry. Democrats. (Dem.), 4.8/6. The Representatives elected are E. A. Cleveland and W. W. Perry. Democrats.

One hundred and thirty-three towns, including Hartford, give Bulkeley 38,039; Waller, 38,362. In 1880 Bigelow received 48,803, English 41,292; net Republican loss, 5,197. The Legislature is Republican, the Senate by 2 majority, the House by probably 15. For Congress Eaton's (Dem.) majority is about 750; Mitchell's (Dem.), in the Second district, about 1500; Seymour's (Dem.), Fourth district, probably 500. In the Third district, Wait's (Rep.) majority is probably 1,000.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Boston, Nov. 7 .- A special to the Journal from Concord, N. H., says that from returns received up to 8:30 to-night Gov. Harriman estimates that Hale is elected by from 1,500 to 2,000 majority, and both members of Congress by about 2,000. The Legislature is largely Republican.

about 2,000. The Legislature is largely Republican.
The vote in 125 towns gives Hale (Rep.)
18,324; Edgerly (Dem.), 18,277; scattering, 471.
The same places in 1880 gave Bell (Rep.)
21,450; Jones (Dem.), 20,637; scattering, 448.
The Republican net loss in those places is 779.
CONCORD, NOV. 7.—The vote in 140 towns and cities gives Hale (Rep.), 23,304; Edgerly (Dem.), 22,350; scattering, 518. The same places in 1880 gave Bell (Rep.), 26,913; Jones (Dem.), 24,905; scattering, 513. Republican net loss in these places, 109. Secretary Chandler is understood to have just sent the following message:

THE ELECTION IN VIRGINIA.

Two Election Judges and a Republican Candidate for Congress Arrested. RICHMOND, Nov. 7 .- The election to-day passed off quietly in this city with the exception of the excitement incident to the arrest of several election judges. Attempts were made during the day by the Readjuster-Coalitionists to vote on capitation tax receipts, signed by two collectors of delinquent taxes. Judge Christian of the Hustings Court decided that the law allowed only one tax collector to each city and country, and instructed the judges of election to refuse votes signed by but one. A United States Supervisor arrested the judges, and they were taken before the United States Commissioners and put under ball for appearance to-morrow. A compromise between the United States Commissioner and Judge Christian followed, and votes were received on both receipts, under protest against one. A contest will be likely to result. The delay by this action caused many votes to be lost on both sides, as the polls closed while a large number of voters were walting to vote.

John Ambier Smith, the Coalitionist candidate for Congress in this district, was arrested here to-day for disorderly conduct at the polls. He was placed under ball to answer the charge. At 11 o'clock meagre returns indicate that John S. Wise, Mahone Congressman at Large, is elected, and four Mahone Congressmen, which will make the delegation stand five Democratic and five Administration. WILMINGTON, NOV. 7.—Returns from various portions of this State show Republican gains in a few instances, but generally the gains are largely in favor of the Democratic State ticket will have a majority in excess of that of 1890. The Democrate, Elect their Local and Con-grees Tickets in St. Louis. Sr. Louis, Nov. 7 .- The election to-day assed off quietly, and, while there was probably more scratching than ever before on city candidates, not much more than two-thirds the registered vote was cast. The result on the city ticket will not be known until late, but the indications point to the election of the entire Democratic ticket, with possibly the exception of Garosche, for Circuit Clerk, who seems to be beaten by Vogel, the nominee of both Republican factions. Several of the Republican candidates were on the Filley machine, or Hoodium Barelegs ticket, as it was called, and the silk stocking or reform Republican ticket, but many of the reformers, disgusted with the ticket of that faction, voted for a majority of the Democratic nominees. Clurdy (Democrat), and present member, carries the Tenth Congress district over Manistre, silk stocking Republican, and Jackson, Filley Greenbacker. James O. Broadhead defeats McLean. Republican and Reform, in the Ninth district by a decreased majority. He is also elected to the vacancy from the old Second district occasioned by the death of Thomas Alien. In the Eighthéitistrict O'Neill, Democrat, beats the divided opposition. Sessinghaus, Republican reformer, leading the machine candidate, Rowever. Money had been used lavishly throughout the district, and the result was to them assured. When the results was to them assured. When the returns first came in to-night the Republican headquarters were ablaze with light, but as township after township showed Democratic gains the lights were extinguished, and before inidinght the ex-Secretary had retired to bed and obscurity. To your correspondent he said that his defeat was caused by the Pennavirania Railroad and the Labor votes. The most huministing part of this great Waterloe was the action of Camden city, where Robeson claims a residence. It gave Ferrell a majority of 1000. The county gave the Democratic nomines a majority of more than 1800. United States Senator Sewell attributes Robeson's defeat to his arbitrary method of managing the campaign.

IN BROOKLYN.

Cleveland's Majority Nearly 40,000 - A Great Victory.

There has rarely if ever been so quiet as election in Brooklyn as that of yesterday, and probably there has never before been so much scratching. The majority of ballots cast were split up, and the feature of the day was the appearance at the polls of men who came from home with their ballots all prepared, and who passed the ticket peddlers by. The vote cast was an unusually large one, and the ballots for the constitutional amondment were so bulky in size that at several of the polling places the police were called upon to furnish an extra ballot box. The ballots for free canals were those chiefly in demand. The Stalwart oppo-sition to Alex. Forman, the Republican candisition to Alex. Forman, the Republican candidate for Comptroller, who refused to eat his words as to Folger, was as determined as ever on the opening of election day. The Young Republicans had fair warning of this partisan attack upon Mayor Low's policy, and it is alloged that they were prepared for it. The reports from the various pelling places showed an inroad upon the vote for samuel Richards, the Stalward candidate, which indicated that the Young Republicans were taking their revenge. As some write country telecies with a blank under the Register Thomas Caroli. The feeling developed by the openition to Mr. Forman was most revengeful, the Young Republicans proved most trouble-some antagonists, and the canvass winds up with a triple spill in the Republican party in Kinga country, viz. the Stalwarts, the Half Breeds, and the Young Republicans. The rest of the ticket went ahead comparatively untouched except by the serateding voters in the bitter feud between the Stalwarts and the Young Republicans. The rest of the ticket went ahead comparatively untouched except by the serateding voters in the bitter feud between the Stalwarts and the Young Republicans. The rest of the voter feud between the Stalwarts and the Young Republicans wonto the polis solidly opposed to the Folger ticket, and the weakness hoped for on election day was not manifested in the sightest degree. The Republicans seemed moved by a spirit of anger which no persuasion could molify, The politicians were all in the dark as to the fate of the local ticket until after the returns began to come in. The vote for Cleveland proved unexpectedly large. There was the not stay-at-home-attiveness expected, nor did the discontented Republicans switch off on the Prohibition ticket. There was such a flood tide on the Cleveland vote that at 9. M. when the result in the dark as to the fate of the local ticket until after the returns began to come in. The vote for Cleveland had carried the city by 38,103 majority, every one claimed a sweeping victory for the whol date for Comptroller, who refused to eat his words as to Foiger, was as determined as ever on the opening of election day. The Young Re-candidate on the county, city, or judiciary tickets,

The following telegram was received by the Democratic General Committee in Brookiya from Albany:

D. Wilbur, W. E. Robinson, Daniel Bradley, and W. H. Murthur. At 9 P. M. the Rev. T. L. Cuyler called at Daggett's headquarters and was ached if it was a Democratic victory. No he said, "It is not a Democratic victory. No he said, "It is not a Democratic victory. It is a Republican house-cleaning." Gen. Tracey visited Republican house-cleaning. Gen. Tracey visited Republican headquarters late at night and concoded Justice Frown's election by 5,000 majority. In econtest in the Eleventh Assembly district is solclose that the actual result cannot be reported. It seemed probable that W. J. Mann, the Republican candidate, was elected early in the evening, but late flagues indicate that A. C. Chapin had made a stronger run than was anticipated. The result in the Twenty-third ward was: Chapin, 1,136; Mann, 928. There is a large Republican majority in the district which Mr. Chapin must overcome.

The returns at the latest hour before this edition indicated Thomas Carroll's election for Register by 2,500 majority. The returns also indicated that William Hester had made a fine run in the Third Congressional district, but Parwin R. James seems elected.

The vote in Brooklyn is as follows:

Frank Tracy, son of Judge Tracy, said last night. "I should not be surprised to see Judge Brewn's majority 10,000. Beecher's speech cost father at least 2,000 votes; perhaps more. Albert Daggett save everything up at 1 A. M., and said. "See are beaten on everything." Richelieu Robinson carried the Tenth Ward by 1,510 mapority. The vote so far as received in the Third congress District is as follows; Fourth Ward-Hester, 1,558; James, 1,122. Eleventh Ward-Hester, 1,558; James, 1,762. Thirteenth Ward-Hester, 1,671; James, 1,942. The figures at 1,50 A. M. show that Col. Samuel Richards Republish an candidate for Register, has run shead of his ticket, being only 400 behind Carroll in fifty-nine districts of Democratic wards. Col. Richards 8 hopes have revived, and he said. "I may pull through yet."
